

STUDENT MINISTRY PARENTS

Hey Mom & Dad,

It's all here: linktr.ee/woccstudents

Just wanted to take a minute to let you know what we're working on at White Oak for Students and Families. (this email has changed since we've had our first full week of online ministry to students, and we're learning as we go) Our hope is to care for and equip students just as we've done outside of this pandemic. We'll (student ministry staff and leaders) be online (Youtube & Instagram @woccstudents, all links are below and found on our site, thewocc.com/students) close to our regular program times (Sunday Mornings 10:30am, Sunday Evenings 6pm and Wednesday Evenings 6:30pm). We want to encourage you and your students to join us in ways that align with the technology and social media standards you're setting in your home.

We're not asking that you create a social account for your student(s) if they don't have one already. For students who don't have one you may want to let them use yours. We know that not everyone is on social media and we don't think that everyone needs to be, we are working to get the content that goes up on social media to be accessible on our website as well. What we do want is to provide are opportunities for students to connect with each other and leaders.

We know this is new territory for all of us, and that things will change as we move forward. We want to leverage technology to allow us to gather just as we would on a Sunday or a Wednesday. We also have an at home competition that we are hoping to roll out this Wednesday, more to come later this week. Here are the apps that we're using and links to access them

If you've got questions about what we're doing (So do we 😊), you can email us at students@thewocc.com. I'll leave you with this last thought to consider. In the midst of so much uncertainty it's easy to be overwhelmed, anxious or pessimistic. Ask yourself this question, "How might God use these times as an answer to the prayers you've been praying?" Perhaps you've wanted more family time. Maybe you have been asking for more faith or patience. Maybe you've been praying for specific people, and God will use these times to open conversations you've wanted to have. Whatever it may be, our prayer is that God would get the Glory, he would work things out for your good and that throughout this time his presence and peace would be with you.
